

New Accountancy Standards and making the Levy work for you

Accountancy Apprenticeship Breakfast Briefing

Venue: Champagne Room, Hotel Indigo Birmingham, The Cube, 200 Wharfside Street, Birmingham, B1 1PR

Date: 15th November 2017

Time: 8:30am till 11:00am. Join us for breakfast from 8:30am. The briefing will take place between 9:00am and 10:00am followed by time to network and ask questions.

Apprenticeships continue to change, and as employers, you are part of that change.

The new apprenticeship reforms are being driven by Government and are redefining the shape of the apprenticeship system to meet the needs of the fast changing economy. The significant changes in terms of funding, standards, and apprenticeship delivery and design can be confusing, especially when you are planning how best to use your Levy whilst trying to avoid disruption to current training plans.

Aimed at all organisations interested in Apprenticeships in Accountancy, this breakfast briefing will cover:

- Latest updates on the Accountancy Standards – including the Level 7
- The role of Apprentice Assessment Organisations and End Point Assessment in the new standards
- Understanding what you can and can't include in the 20% 'off-the-job' rules
- Apprentice eligibility rules including transferring part way through an existing Professional qualification
- Apprenticeship delivery models
- Opportunities to enrich your existing development programmes

It will also provide a platform for you to express what you would like to see as part of your Apprenticeship programmes.

A full panel of speakers (including delegates from ACCA, AAT, CIMA and ICAEW) will be announced nearer the time, but register today by emailing james.taylor@htftpartnership.co.uk for what promises to be an informative and insightful briefing session.
