Have you recently failed the ACCA Performance Management exam, and do you need help from a dedicated team of specialists to pass next time?

The course includes the following:

- A 30 min review session with an experienced HTFT tutor. During this session the tutor will discuss your performance in a previous exam using your 'ACCA My Exam Performance'. The review session will identify your strengths and weaknesses and the tutor will agree a sensible resit plan to give you the best chance of success at the next exam session!
